

Rules; Highest dice rolled goes first and first to 67 wins - If you land on a red number, you have been injured by a sea bird, go back to your previous position. If you land on a green number, you have successfully laid your eggs, roll again. If you land on a blue number, you have not eaten much food lately, miss one go. Each person gets a shark a squid and a bass and each can be used each once when they land on another player. They send the other player back 5, 3 and 2 spaces respectively.
